

Compliance Feedback for ESE Monthly Meeting - November

UBER fare split option:

There is a new UBER charge appearing on receipts. This is UBER far split option, which allows the person to divide a trip equally between two different accounts. This split has a fee associated with it.

New airline fare types:

Southwest and Delta have initiated new fare types; here is an outline of the types. Include Alaska, since a lot of our travelers use Alaska Airlines.

- All upgrades require business justification and approval.
  - OR use a comparison standard economy fare ticket
